

Günther Krug

Vice- President of the Chamber of Regions of the Congress of Local and Regional Authorities

Profession: engineer, journalist, 3 children
1942, 28th april born in Thuringia, Germany,
1966 start of employment in different companies and edition houses,
1990 after the falling down of the Berlin wall start of political engagement for Social Democratic Party (SPD), SPD spokesman for the GDR, later member of local parliaments, different functions in the SPD, now vice-chairman of the SPD for the district Marzahn-Hellersdorf
2001-2006/ 2006-2011 elected member of the Berlin Parliament (Abgeordnetenhaus von Berlin)

Functions within the Congress

Since 2002 Member of the Congress, since 2003 Vice-President,

1.Vice-President 2008-2010 for the Chamber of Regions ,alternate member of the Committee Social Cohesion, alternate member of the Committee Culture and Education, full member for the working group interregional cooperation , full member of the Standing Committee, representative of the Regional Chamber of the Congress to ENTO. Now Günther Krug is Rapporteur for the Credentials of the national delegations to the Congress (together with Mr. Knape(Sweden)), for the “Prize of the Regions” and for issues of the cultural committee such as cultural routes, media, education, sport. He was member of delegations for observation of elections in many countries.

Head of the German delegation to the Congress.

