

14th Study Session on the European Convention on Human Rights for persons providing legal assistance to Roma and Traveller Communities

The Council of Europe Roma and Travellers Division and the European Roma Rights Centre (ERRC) will organise the 14th study session for persons involved in providing legal assistance to Roma and Traveller communities, from 6 to 7 September 2010 in Strasbourg.

The study session aims at providing participants with practical examples on how to use the Council of Europe Human Rights Convention in defence pleadings in favour of Roma and Traveller communities:

The session involves:

- Training and lectures on relevant articles and procedure of the European Convention on Human Rights
- practical information on how to submit an application to the European Court of Human Rights
- a moot trial exercise

The study session is led by judges and lawyers from Registry of the European Court of Human Rights, ERRC lawyers and experienced outside experts.

Participants should be practising lawyers involved in defending Roma and Travellers cases in any of the Council of Europe member states.

The working language will be English and the Council of Europe will cover travelling and subsistence costs.

Motivation letter together with a CV in English should reach the Council of Europe Secretariat before 31 May 2010.
