

December 2008

Ms Nell Rasmussen is a Danish national. She has a Degree of Master of Laws from the University of Copenhagen and also holds supplementary degrees in criminology from the University of Oslo, Norway and in journalism from the Danish School of Journalism.

Ms Rasmussen's professional experience covers positions, to name just a few, as associate professor at the School of Social Work in Copenhagen, Executive Director for the Danish Family Planning Association, senior advisor at the Danish Centre for Human Rights, member of the European Commission Expert Group on Trafficking in Human Beings as well as Head of the Research Centre on Prostitution and Trafficking and in the Danish Centre on Social Vulnerability.

Currently Ms Rasmussen is a Senior Consultant at the National Board of Social Services, her sector of activity being domestic violence, with responsibility for the implementation of projects within the National plan of Action on Violence against Women and Children in the Family, trafficking and prostitution. Ms Rasmussen is an expert in the fields of prostitution and trafficking in human beings, international sexual and reproductive human rights, women's rights, family law and gender issues.