Ce document ne sera pas distribué en réunion. Prière de vous munir de cet exemplaire.*

The present document is a renumbered update of the draft revised ECTT as it stands following the discussions in the 43rd meeting of the T-TT. To simplify the reading of the draft, the amendments are marked in bold while the changes agreed in the 43rd meeting are underlined or marked in strikethrough. The footnotes contain references to corresponding articles in the Audiovisual Media Services Directive (AVMSD) and/or links to Council of Europe norms of relevance.

References to the AVMS Directive relate to the Audiovisual Media Service Directive (AVMSD or, Directive 2007/65/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 December 2007 amending Council Directive 89/552/EEC on the coordination of certain provisions laid down by law, regulation or administrative action in Member States).

The first column reflects the ECTT in its current version. The second column contains the updated and renumbered text based on the decisions taken by the Standing Committee during its 43rd meeting (Reference is made to the report of the meeting Doc T-TT(2008)004) .

Draft revision of the European Convention on Transfrontier Television

TITLE

"European Convention on Transfrontier Audiovisual Media Services"

CHAPTER I: General provisions Article 1: Object and purpose This Convention is concerned with programme services embodied in transmissions. The purpose is to facilitate, among the Parties, the transfrontier transmission and the retransmission of television programme services.	CHAPTER I: General provisions Article 1: Object, purpose and field of application 1. This Convention is concerned with audiovisual media services. The purpose is to facilitate the provision of these services in a transfrontier context among the Parties. 2. The Convention applies to audiovisual media services which are provided by media service providers within the jurisdiction of a Party, and which can be received, directly or indirectly, in one or more other Parties. 3. This Convention shall not apply to audiovisual media services intended exclusively for reception in States which are not Party to this Convention and which are not received with standard consumer equipment directly or indirectly by the public in one or more Parties.
Article 2: Terms employed For the purposes of this Convention: (a) "Transmission" means the initial	Article 2: Terms employed For the purposes of this Convention: (a) "Audiovisual media service" means a service

emission by terrestrial transmitter, by cable, or by satellite of whatever nature, in encoded or unencoded form, of television programme services for reception by the general public. It does not include communication services operating on individual demand; (b) "Retransmission" signifies the fact of receiving and simultaneously transmitting, irrespective of the technical means employed, complete and unchanged television programme services, or important parts of such services, transmitted by broadcasters for reception by the general public; (c) "Broadcaster" means the natural or legal person who has editorial responsibility for the composition of television programme services for reception by the general public and transmits them or has them transmitted, complete and unchanged, by a third party; (d) "Programme service" means all the items within a single service provided by a given broadcaster within the meaning of the preceding paragraph; (e) "European audiovisual works" means creative works, the production or co-production of which is controlled by European natural or legal persons; (f) "Advertising" means any public announcement broadcast in return for payment or similar consideration or for self-promotional purposes, which is intended to promote the sale, purchase or rental of a product or service, to advance a cause or idea, or to bring about some other effect desired by the advertiser or the broadcaster itself; (g) "Tele-shopping" means direct offers broadcast to the public with a view to the supply of goods or services, including immovable property, rights	which is under the editorial responsibility of a media service provider and the principal purpose of which is the provision of programmes in order to inform, entertain or educate, to the general public by means of an electronic communications network. Such audiovisual media services are either television broadcasts or on-demand services and/or audiovisual commercial communication. These services may take any form of economic activity but exclude activities which are primarily non economic and which are not in competition with television broadcasting. (b) "Transmission" means the initial provision of audiovisual media services; (c) "Retransmission" signifies the fact of receiving and simultaneously transmitting, irrespective of the technical means employed, complete and unchanged audiovisual media services, or important parts of such services; (d) "Programme" means a set of moving images with or without sound constituting an individual item within a schedule or catalogue established by a media service provider and whose form and content is comparable to the form and content of television broadcasting; (e) "Editorial responsibility" means the exercise of effective control both over the selection of the programmes and over their organisation either in a chronological schedule, in the case of television broadcast, or in a catalogue, in the case of on-demand services; (f) "Media service provider" means the natural or legal person who has editorial responsibility for the choice of the audiovisual content of the audiovisual media service and determines the manner in which it is organised; (g) "Television broadcasting" or "television broadcast" (i.e. a linear audiovisual media service) means an audiovisual media service provided by a media service provider for simultaneous viewing of programmes on the basis of a programme schedule;

and obligations in return for payment;

(h) "Sponsorship" means the participation of a natural or legal person, who is not engaged in broadcasting activities or in the production of audiovisual works, in the direct or indirect financing of a programme with a view to promoting the name, trademark, image or activities of that person.

(h) "Broadcaster" means a media service provider of television broadcasts;

(i) "On-demand audiovisual media service" (i.e. a non-linear audiovisual media service) means an audiovisual media service provided by a media service provider for the viewing of programmes at the moment chosen by the user and at his individual request on the basis of a catalogue of programmes selected by the media service provider;

(j) "Audiovisual commercial communication" means

1. images with or without sound which are designed to promote, directly or indirectly, the goods, services or image of a natural or legal entity pursuing an economic activity or

2. images designed to advance a cause or idea, or to bring about some other effect.

Such images accompany or are included in a programme in return for payment or for similar consideration or for self-promotional purposes. Forms of audiovisual commercial communication include, inter alia, television advertising, sponsorship, tele-shopping and product placement;

(k) "Television advertising" means any form of announcement broadcast whether in return for payment or for similar consideration or broadcast for self-promotional purposes by a public or private undertaking or natural person

1. in connection with a trade, business, craft or profession in order to promote the supply of goods or services, including immovable property, rights and obligations in return for payment or

2. designed to advance a cause or idea, or to bring about some other effect.

(l) "Surreptitious audiovisual commercial communication" means the representation in words or pictures of goods, services, the name, the trade mark or the activities of a producer of goods or a provider of services in programmes when such representation is intended by the media service provider to serve as advertising and might mislead the public as to its nature. Such representation shall, in particular, be considered to be intentional if it is done in return for payment or for similar consideration;

(m) "Sponsorship" means any contribution made by a public or private undertaking or natural person not engaged in providing audiovisual media services or in the production of audiovisual works, to the financing of audiovisual media services or programmes with a view to promoting its name, its trade mark, its image, its activities, or its products;

(n) "Tele-shopping" means direct offers broadcast to the public with a view to the supply of goods or services, including immovable property, rights and obligations, in return for payment;

(o) "Product placement" means any form of audiovisual commercial communication consisting of the inclusion of or a reference to a product, a service or the trade mark thereof so that it is featured within a programme, in return for payment or for similar consideration;

(p) "European audiovisual works" means creative works, the production or co-production of which is effectively controlled by European natural or legal persons and which comply with one of the following three conditions:

- they are made by one or more producers established in one or more European states¹

- production of the works is supervised and actually controlled by one or more producers established in one or more European states

- the contribution of co-producers of European States to the total co-production costs is preponderant and the co-production is not

Article 3: Field of application This Convention shall apply to any programme service transmitted or retransmitted by entities or by technical means within the jurisdiction of a Party, whether by cable, terrestrial transmitter or satellite, and which can be received, directly or indirectly, in one or more other Parties.	NB: deleted and replaced by Art. 1, para. 2.
Article 4: Freedom of reception and retransmission The Parties shall ensure freedom of expression and information in accordance with Article 10 of the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms and they shall guarantee freedom of reception and shall not restrict the retransmission on their territories of programme services which comply with the terms of this Convention.	Article 3: Freedom of reception and retransmission The Parties shall ensure freedom of expression and information in accordance with Article 10 of the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms and they shall guarantee freedom of reception and shall not restrict the retransmission on their territories of audiovisual media services from media service providers which comply with the terms of this Convention.
Article 5: Duties of the transmitting Parties 1. Each transmitting Party shall ensure that all programme services transmitted by a broadcaster within its jurisdiction comply with the terms of this Convention. 2. For the purposes of this Convention, a broadcaster within the jurisdiction of a Party is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - a broadcaster who is deemed to be established in that Party according to paragraph 3; - a broadcaster to whom paragraph 4 applies. 	Article 4: Duties and jurisdiction of the Parties 1. Each Party shall ensure that all audiovisual media services transmitted by a media service provider within its jurisdiction comply with the terms of this Convention. 2. Parties shall encourage co-and/or self regulatory regimes at national level in the fields covered by this Convention to the extent permitted by their legal systems. These regimes shall be such that they are broadly accepted by the main stakeholders in the Parties concerned and provide for effective enforcement.³ 3. For the purposes of this Convention, a media service provider within the jurisdiction of a Party is:

³ See Article 3.7 and recital 36 AVMSD.

3. For the purposes of this Convention, a broadcaster shall be deemed to be established in a Party, hereinafter referred to as the "transmitting Party" in the following cases:

(a) the broadcaster has its head office in that Party and the decisions on programme schedules are taken in that Party;

(b) if a broadcaster has its head office in one Party but decisions on programme schedules are taken in another Party, it shall be deemed to be established in the Party where a significant part of the workforce involved in the pursuit of the television broadcasting activity operates; if a significant part of the workforce involved in the pursuit of the television broadcasting activity operates in each of those Parties, the broadcaster shall be deemed to be established in the Party where it has its head office; if a significant part of the workforce involved in the pursuit of the television broadcasting activity operates in neither of those Parties, the broadcaster shall be deemed to be established in the Party where it first began broadcasting in accordance with the system of law of that Party, provided that it maintains a stable and effective link with the economy of that Party;

(c) if a broadcaster has its head office in a Party but decisions on programme schedules are taken in a State which is not Party to this Convention, or vice-versa, it shall be deemed to be established in the Party concerned, provided that a significant part of the workforce involved in the pursuit of the television broadcasting activity operates in that Party;

(d) if, when applying the criteria of paragraph 3 of Article 2 of Directive 97/36/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 19 June 1997

- a media service provider who is deemed to be established in that Party according to paragraph 4;

- a media service provider to whom paragraph 5 applies.

4. For the purposes of this Convention, a media service provider shall be deemed to be established in a Party, hereinafter referred to as the "Party having jurisdiction" in the following cases:

(a) the media service provider has its head office in that Party and the editorial decisions about the audiovisual media service are taken in that Party;

(b) if a media service provider has its head office in one Party but the editorial decisions about the audiovisual media service are taken in another Party, it shall be deemed to be established in the Party where a significant part of the workforce involved in the pursuit of the audiovisual media service activity operates; if a significant part of the workforce involved in the pursuit of the audiovisual media service activity operates in each of those Parties, the media service provider shall be deemed to be established in the Party where it has its head office; if a significant part of the workforce involved in the pursuit of the audiovisual media service activity operates in neither of those Parties, the media service provider shall be deemed to be established in the Party where it first began its activity in accordance with the system of law of that Party, provided that it maintains a stable and effective link with the economy of that Party;

(c) if a media service provider has its head office in a Party but editorial decisions about the audiovisual media service are taken in a State which is not Party to this Convention, or vice-versa, it shall be deemed to be established in the Party concerned, provided that a significant part of the workforce involved in the pursuit of the audiovisual media service activity operates in that Party;

(d) if, when applying the criteria of Article 2 (3) of the audiovisual media services Directive (Council Directive 89/552/EEC as amended by

amending Council Directive 89/552/EEC on the coordination of certain provisions laid down by law, regulation or administrative action in member States concerning the pursuit of television broadcasting activities, a broadcaster is deemed to be established in a member State of the European Community, that broadcaster shall also be deemed to be established in that State for the purposes of this Convention. 4. A broadcaster to whom the provisions of paragraph 3 is not applicable is deemed to be within the jurisdiction of a Party, so-called transmitting Party, in the following cases: (a) it uses a frequency granted by that Party; (b) although it does not use a frequency granted by a Party it does use a satellite capacity appertaining to that Party; c) although it uses neither a frequency granted by a Party nor a satellite capacity appertaining to a Party it does use a satellite up-link situated in that Party. 5. If the transmitting Party cannot be determined according to paragraph 4, the Standing Committee shall consider this issue according to Article 21, paragraph 1, indent a, of this Convention, in order to determine this Party; 6. This Convention shall not apply to television broadcasts intended exclusively for reception in States which are not Party to this Convention, and which are not received directly or indirectly by the public in one or more Parties.	Directive 2007/65/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council on the coordination of certain provisions laid down by law, regulation or administrative action in Member States concerning the provision of audiovisual media services), a media service provider is deemed to be established in a member State of the European Community, that media service provider shall also be deemed to be established in that State for the purposes of this Convention. 5. Media service providers to whom the provisions of paragraph 4 are not applicable are deemed to be within the jurisdiction of a Party, in the following cases: (a) they use a satellite up-link situated in that Party (b) although they do not use a satellite up-link situated in that Party, they use a satellite capacity appertaining to that Party; (c) they use a frequency granted by that Party. 6. If the Party having jurisdiction cannot be determined according to paragraph 5, the Standing Committee shall consider this issue according to Article 25, paragraph 1, indent a of this Convention, in order to determine this Party; [Present Para. 6. moved to Article 1 para. 3.]
Article 6: Provision of information 1. The responsibilities of the broadcaster	Article 5: Transparency and information requirements

shall be clearly and adequately specified in the authorisation issued by, or contract concluded with, the competent authority of each Party, or by any other legal measure. 2. Information about the broadcaster shall be made available, upon request, by the competent authority of transmitting Party. Such information shall include, as a minimum, the name or denomination, seat and status of the broadcaster, the name of the legal representative, the composition of the capital, the nature, purpose and mode of financing of the programme service the broadcaster is providing or intends providing.	1. Parties shall ensure that the responsibilities of media service providers shall be clearly and adequately specified in any authorisation issued by, or contract concluded with, the competent authority of each Party, or by any other legal measure. 2. Parties shall ensure that audiovisual media service providers under their jurisdiction shall make easily, directly and permanently accessible to the recipients of the service at least the following information: a) the name of the media service provider; b) the geographical address at which the media service provider is established; c) the details of the media service provider, including his electronic mail address or website, which allow him to be contacted rapidly in a direct and effective manner; d) where applicable, the competent regulatory or supervisory bodies.⁴

Without prejudice to paragraphs 1 to 5 of this article, Parties shall ensure, in accordance with their legal systems and practices, that the modalities and conditions regarding the provision of such short extracts are defined, in particular any compensation arrangements, the maximum length of short extracts and time limits regarding their transmission. Where compensation is provided for, it shall not exceed the additional costs directly incurred in providing access.
Article 9a: Access of the public to events of major importance 1. Each Party retains the right to take measures to ensure that a broadcaster within its jurisdiction does not broadcast on an exclusive basis events which are regarded by that Party as being of major importance for society in such a way as to deprive a substantial proportion of the public in that Party of the possibility of following such events by live coverage or deferred coverage on free television. If it does so, the Party concerned may have recourse to the drafting of a list of designated events which it considers to be of major importance for society. 2. Parties shall ensure by appropriate means, respecting the legal guarantees granted by the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms as well as, where appropriate, the national constitution, that a broadcaster within their jurisdiction does not exercise the exclusive rights purchased by that broadcaster following the date of entry into force of the Protocol amending the European Convention on Transfrontier Television in such a way that a substantial proportion of the public in another Party is deprived of the possibility of following events which are designated by that other Party via whole or partial live coverage or where	Article 10: Access of the public to events of major importance by means of television 1. Each Party retains the right to take measures to ensure that a broadcaster within its jurisdiction does not broadcast on an exclusive basis events which are regarded by that Party as being of major importance for society in such a way as to deprive a substantial proportion of the public in that Party of the possibility of following such events by live coverage or deferred coverage on free television. Each Party may consequently have recourse to the drafting of a list of designated events which it considers to be of major importance for society. 2. Parties shall ensure by appropriate means, respecting the legal guarantees granted by the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms {as well as, where appropriate, the national constitution}, that a broadcaster within their jurisdiction does not exercise the exclusive rights purchased by that broadcaster following the date of entry into force of the first Protocol amending this Convention in such a way that a substantial proportion of the public in another Party is deprived of the possibility of following events which are designated by that other Party in accordance with paragraph 1 on free television via whole or partial live coverage or where necessary or appropriate for objective reasons in the public interest, whole or partial deferred coverage on free television as determined by that other Party. This requirement on State Parties however only applies if:

necessary or appropriate for objective reasons in the public interest, whole or partial deferred coverage on free television as determined by that other Party under paragraph 1, respecting the following requirements:

(a) the Party implementing the measures referred to in paragraph 1 shall draw up a list of national or non-national events which are considered by that Party as being of major importance for society;

(b) the Party shall do so in a clear and transparent manner in due and effective time;

(c) the Party shall determine whether these events shall be available via whole or partial live coverage, or where necessary or appropriate for objective reasons in the public interest, whole or partial deferred coverage;

(d) the measures taken by the Party drawing up the list shall be proportionate and as detailed as necessary to enable other Parties to take measures referred to in this paragraph;

(e) the Party drawing up the list shall notify the list and the corresponding measures to the Standing Committee, the time limit for which shall be fixed by the Standing Committee;

(f) the measures taken by the Party drawing up the list shall be within the limitations of the guidelines of the Standing Committee referred to in paragraph 3 and the Standing Committee must have given a positive opinion on the measures.

Measures based on this paragraph shall apply only to those events published by the Standing Committee in the annual list referred to in paragraph 3 and to those exclusive rights purchased after the entry into force of this amending

(a) the Party taking the measures referred to in paragraph 1 has drawn up a list of national or non-national events which are considered by that Party as being of major importance for society;

(b) that Party has done so in a clear and transparent manner in due and effective time;

(c) that Party has made clear whether these events shall be available via whole or partial live coverage, or where necessary or appropriate for objective reasons in the public interest, whole or partial deferred coverage;

(d) the measures taken by the Party drawing up the list are proportionate and are as detailed as necessary to enable other Parties to take measures referred to in this paragraph;

(e) the Party drawing up the list has notified the list and the corresponding measures to the Standing Committee;

(f) the measures taken by the Party drawing up the list are within the limitations of the guidelines of the Standing Committee referred to in Article 25 paragraph 2 sub a and the Standing Committee has given a positive opinion on the list and on the corresponding measures.

Measures based on this paragraph shall apply only to those events published by the Standing Committee under the terms of Article 25 paragraph 2 sub c and to those exclusive rights purchased after the entry into force of the first amending Protocol to this Convention.

3. Where Parties have a list and corresponding measures in compliance with article 3j of Council Directive 89/552/EEC as amended by Directive 2007/65/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council on the coordination of certain provisions laid down by law, regulation or administrative action in Member States concerning the provision of audiovisual media services, the Standing Committee will , upon request by the Party concerned, and without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph 4, publish this list and

The latter shall not be a national of either of the parties to the dispute, nor have his usual place of residence in the territory of either of those parties, nor be employed by either of them, nor have dealt with the case in another capacity.

4. If one of the parties has not appointed an arbitrator within one month following the communication of the request by the Secretary General of the Council of Europe, he shall be appointed at the request of the other party by the President of the European Court of Human Rights within a further one-month period. If the President of the Court is unable to act or is a national of one of the parties to the dispute, the appointment shall be made by the Vice-President of the Court or by the most senior judge to the Court who is available and is not a national of one of the parties to the dispute. The same procedure shall be observed if, within a period of one month following the appointment of the second arbitrator, the Chairman of the arbitration tribunal is not designated.

5. The provisions of paragraphs 3 and 4 shall apply, as the case may be, in order to fill any vacancy.

6. Two or more parties which determine by agreement that they are in the same interest shall appoint an arbitrator jointly.

7. The parties to the dispute and the Standing Committee shall provide the arbitration tribunal with all facilities necessary for the effective conduct of the proceedings.
