

HOPE 4 the World – Update on Thar Yar Su School

Dr Steff Nash visited the village in December 2012 (better weather than when Carol and I were there in May!) and he was able to take the first installment of the money granted by the Entraide Solidarity Association. He was also able to see what progress had been made since May when Carol and I gave an initial sum of money. (He was in Myanmar for only 24 hours, having been on the Thai Burma border delivering medical training in the refugee camps.)

It all seems to be going very well, and we now have photographs showing the brickmaking and supplies as well as the progress of the structure of the school when Steff was there.

At the bottom of this document are electronic copies of

- 1) The receipt for the money donated by the Entraide Solidarity Association (3,363,350 kyats)
- 2) Two photographs showing the handover of the money and the signing of the receipt

Here are some other photographs:

The "road" to the village from Taunggyi.

Dr Steff Nash outside the school (without walls, floor, windows and doors, but with tin roof and foundations already in place) with village elders in December 2012

Inside the school with children and villagers from Thar Yar Su and surrounding area.

Below are photographs we have received showing the making of bricks etc. for the walls. This is being done on site at the school.

Carol and I are hoping to go to Myanmar on 15th May for four weeks (we have booked our flights but haven't applied for Visas yet). We really need to take the remainder of the money with us when we go, but I think the Bureau do not intend to give the second and final installment until after completion. We will probably not be able to supply the final photographs showing completion until after our planned trip in December.

With kindest regards and our grateful thanks for your support.
