

12

May
2017
▲ Lvl. 2

State replied

Greece

n° 45/2017

Alert created on: 26 Apr 2017

Attack on Office of Kathimerini in Thessaloniki

SOURCE OF THREAT ▶ Non-state

CATEGORY  ▶ Attacks on physical safety and integrity of journalists

PARTNER: EFJ/IFJ, AEJ, Index, IPI, RSF

Unidentified assailants attacked the office of Kathimerini, a Greek daily, in Thessaloniki on 24 April 2017. Approximately ten masked people stormed the office, threw green paint all over the place and spread leaflets with the message "A good story is a stone to a journalist's head," written on them. The administrative staff who was in the office at the time of the attack called the police after the intruders ignored her pleas to stop and leave. They left before the police arrived.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

-  ESIEMTH statement \(in Greek\)
-  Report published on Mapping Media Freedom: "Greece: Masked assailants attack Kathimerini daily offices"
-  ESIEA statement \(in Greek\)
-  Article on Kathimerini`s website: "Kathimerini offices in Thessaloniki targeted by unknown assailants"

STATE REPLIES

12 May 2017 | Response from the Greek authorities

-  Letter from the Permanent Representation of Greece to the Council of Europe

