Implementation of the Article 38 of Lanzarote Convention, in order to protect children / victims and provide them with assistance

Several examples of international cooperation can be mentioned:
National Programme on Violence Prevention against Children for 2011 – 2015

ACTION:

Since 2002 cooperation with the Secretariat of the Council of the Baltic Sea States in area to exchange of international experience will be carried out, professional competence of persons working with children having suffered violence and their family members will be improved and international partners will become more numerous.

Ministry of Social Security and Labour participates(2012) in the project of European Economic Area Financial Mechanism - Programme „Children and young people at risk”. According this programme it is being planned to establish child support centre for victims of sexual abuse using model of Iceland Barnahus by the end of 2014. In addition, practically improve the knowlege of the Study visit to the Children's House of Iceland organised by Council of Europe.

In the near future Lithuania hopes to cooperate with experts of Iceland Barnahus in order to train specialist of Lithuania to specialize in working with children, who have suffered from sexual abuse. The establishment of such a centre in Lithuania for children who are victims of sexual abuse or sexual exploitation and for their families would ensure a specialized comprehensive assistance, quality survey of child and other services, which would contribute to the implementation of the provisions of the Lanzarote Convention.
