Jean Lambert MEP Biography

Jean Lambert has been the Green MEP for London since 1999. She was re-elected to the European Parliament for the third time in the June 2009 European Elections.

Jean is a member of the European Parliament's Employment and Social Affairs Committee where she works on issues including social inclusion, equal treatment, workers' rights, social security, immigration and improving work-life balance. Jean is also a substitute member on the Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs Committee, where she works on immigration, anti-discrimination, and asylum.

Her special interests are democracy and human rights, sustainable development, anti-discrimination and social inclusion.