

Antidiscrimination Campaign

Budapest workshop European Youth Centre of the Council of Europe 23rd – 26th February 2010

---

23rd February.

Participants arrive across the afternoon and evening.

There will be an informal buffet in the evening at the centre. Participants have time to meet each other and settle in.

---

24th February.

9.30 - Welcome and introductions to the Council of Europe anti-discrimination campaign and the work of the Fundamental Rights Agency.

Session 1 - Discussion about the format of the education pack.

Teaching techniques brainstorming session set up – dividing into groups.

Brainstorming session in small groups

Reporting back to main group and collating list.

Preparation for afternoon session.

LUNCH

Session 2 – Small groups try out selected practical teaching exercises.

Some groups will stay in the centre to do this, others will be outside.

Once the exercises are completed, group reaction and summaries will be written up for the website.

7 pm – An evening of shared culture at the centre.

We'll be swapping food and drink and exchanging stories, and possibly even song.

A chance to relax at the end of the day.

---

25th February

9.30 – Session 3

Feedback / sharing the results of the exercises on Wednesday.

All change round groups to try out more exercises.

Some people will stay in the centre, others will go outside to work.

As before we will record parts of the exercise and also write up results for the website.

Lunch

Session 4

Feedback on the morning's events and conclusions from the experience.

Brainstorm of information essential for the education pack.

This might include: media regulation, codes of conduct, journalism/ media union advice, community media sites, etc.

Time allowed for discussion and writing up for website.

Early finish to the afternoon.

Time free to explore Budapest.

There are some media events happening in the city which we will send you information about and some may wish to attend.

---

26th February

10-1 Final session 5.

Exchange of information and follow up events / commitments discussed.

'The next steps' and keeping in touch with progress.

LUNCH and depart.

---