

EEMPS

OUTPUT
SUMMARY

MEDIANE

Media in Europe for Diversity Inclusiveness

EUROPEAN EXCHANGES OF MEDIA PRACTICES

Pair: COE 85

FEMEI, O CONVERSAȚIE / FRAUEN, EIN GESPRÄCH

1. Exchange Partners

	Partner 1	Partner 2
Name and Surname	Adriana RADU	Stefanie LOHAUS
Job title	Editor	Editor
Organisation / Media	SEX vs The STORK Romania	Missy Magazine Germany

2. Summary

"WOMEN, a Conversation" is Romanian-German short documentary portraying issues women in one of the poorest, respectively one of the richest countries in Europe share or are divided by. The film feature six stories: a women's center in Berlin, a German Berlin MP of Turkish origins, a Roma giving birth to her first child at 17 and starting an NGO in her community after getting through college, a Romanian corporate employee turned artist and LGBT-activist, a Romanian whose life is no longer dictated by her image issues, but by her will to improve children's lives, and a German 68 yo who won't stand becoming invisible post-retirement.

<http://goo.gl/QB5Xoy>

3. Dissemination of the Output

There was a small communication campaign surrounding the premiere of the film, including a trailer + sending out press releases. The short documentary premiered to a small crowd of human rights' activists, film journalists and general public on the 18th of 2014 at a bookshop in Bucharest. It was published on the 19th of December on Adevarul.ro, the website of a Romanian national newspaper, as well as on the Missy Magazine website.

Funded by the European Union and the Council of Europe

EUROPEAN UNION

COUNCIL OF EUROPE

CONSEIL DE L'EUROPE

Implemented
by the Council of Europe

4. Biographies of the authors

Adriana Radu - Born in Bucharest, 1989. Romanian reproductive rights activist, feminist and journalist. French and German Literature studies at the University Lumière Lyon 2. Chief editor of SEX vs The STORK (www.sexulvsbarza.ro), a unique video-online platform for sexual education. Freelance journalist in Bucharest and Berlin.

Stéfanie Lohaus - Born 1978, in Dinslaken, Germany. Trained journalist, founder, publisher and editor of Missy Magazine, a queer-feminist magazine based in Berlin. Work as a journalist freelancer e.g. for Zeit Online, Nido and RBB Kulturradio and as a columnist for the all-female Blog 10vor8 at faz.net. Studied Applied Cultural Sciences (Angewandte Kulturwissenschaften) at University of Lüneburg and journalism at Berliner Journalistenschule.